DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to applicant's amendment received on 06/13/06.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3, 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sasaki et al. (5,768,967).

Sasaki et al. discloses the invention including:

- Claims 1, 2 and 8; a saw unit 30, a motor (col. 4, line 14) having an armature, a saw blade 30a, a base 20, a turntable 21, a bracket (see Fig. 1); a supporting member 31, a guiding groove 21a1, a ram 23, a hinge pivot shaft 30b.
- Claim 2; a front end portion of the ram extends beyond the edge of the turntable (see Fig. 1).
- Claim 3; an elongate slot (see Fig. 5).
- Claim 7; restraining means 24.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3724

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sasaki et al. (5,768,967) in view of Batson (4,265,154).

Sasaki et al. discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for first and second supporting members, an elastic member and a guiding channel. However, Batson teaches the use of first and second supporting members 26, an elastic member 78 and a guiding channel 82 for the purpose of enabling accurate orientation of the fence relative the base support structure. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the device of Sasaki et al. by providing the first and second supporting members, the elastic member and the guiding channel as taught by Batson in order to obtain a device that enables accurate orientation of the fence relative the base support structure.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 3724

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
